SETTLEMENT BENEFITS - WHAT YOU MAY GET

If you received notice that your Private Information may have been implicated in the Fava v. Laborers International Union of North America Local 1184 Data Security Incident that took place on or about November 17, 2024, and if you did not opt out of the settlement, you may submit a claim.

The easiest way to submit a claim is online at www.LIUNA1184DataSettlement.com, or you can complete and mail this Claim Form to the mailing address above.

You may be eligible for one or more of the following settlement benefits.

Credit Monitoring Services: You may enroll in one (1) year of Credit Monitoring. All Settlement Class Members who were offered, or who previously claimed, the 12 months of credit monitoring offered to them shall be permitted to file a claim for an additional 1-year term (i.e., up to 2 years total). Instructions for enrollment will be provided once the Settlement is finally approved.

Compensation for Ordinary Losses: You may submit valid Claim Form and must provide supporting documentation showing that you spent money or incurred losses fairly traceable to the Data Security Incident for up to $500 per person.

Ordinary Losses are: (i) Out-of-Pocket Expenses incurred as a result of the Data Security Incident, including, without limitation, out-of-pocket expenses incurred as result of the Incident, including unreimbursed bank fees, unreimbursed card reissuance fees, unreimbursed overdraft fees, unreimbursed charges related to the unavailability of funds, unreimbursed late fees, unreimbursed over-limit fees, unreimbursed charges from banks or credit card companies, reasonable expenses relating to tax remediation efforts, and fees for credit reports, between November 17, 2024 and October 8, 2025; (ii) The cost of purchasing credit monitoring or other identity theft insurance products purchased between November 17, 2024 and October 8, 2025; and (iii) Up to 4 hours of time spent, at $25 per hour (for a total of up to $100) for time spent dealing with the Data Security Incident, but only if the time can be documented with reasonable specificity by answering open-ended questions on the Claim Form. Settlement Class Members must submit an attestation that they spent the claimed time responding to issues raised by the Data Security Incident.

Compensation for Extraordinary Losses: You may submit a timely and valid Claim Form for extraordinary losses for up to $3,500 per person. Extraordinary losses are losses associated with identity theft, fraud, and other actual misuse of personal information, provided that: (i) the loss is an actual, documented, and unreimbursed monetary loss; (ii) the claimant provides proof to the Claims Administrator that that loss was proximately caused by the Data Security Incident; (iii) the claimant made reasonable efforts to avoid the loss or seek reimbursement for the loss, including, but not limited to, exhaustion of all available credit monitoring or identity monitoring insurance; and; (iv) the loss occurred between the date of the Data Security Incident and the date that the Motion for Preliminary Approval is filed.

Claims must be submitted online or mailed by January 30, 2026. Use the address at the top of this form for mailed claims.

For more information and complete instructions visit www.LIUNA1184DataSettlement.com.

Settlement benefits will be distributed after the Settlement is approved by the Court and final.

Cash Payment

You can submit a claim for the Compensation for Ordinary Losses and or Extraordinary Losses:

1. Ordinary Losses: You can receive reimbursement for Ordinary Losses up to $500 total, if you lost or spent money trying to prevent or recover from fraud or identity theft that you believe is fairly traceable to the Data Security Incident and have not been reimbursed for that money.

Examples of documented losses include: out-of-pocket expenses incurred as a result of the Data Security Incident, including (without limitation) unreimbursed bank fees, unreimbursed card reissuance fees, unreimbursed overdraft fees, unreimbursed charges related to the unavailability of funds, unreimbursed late fees, unreimbursed over-limit fees, unreimbursed charges from banks or credit card companies, reasonable expenses relating to tax remediation efforts, and fees for credit reports, between November 17, 2024 and October 8, 2025.

Examples of supporting documentation include (but are not limited to): (i) credit card statements; (ii) bank statements; (iii) invoices; (iv) telephone records; and (v) receipts. “Self-prepared” documents such as handwritten receipts are, by themselves, insufficient to receive reimbursement, but can be considered to add clarity or support other submitted documentation. You will not be reimbursed for expenses if you have been reimbursed for the same expenses by another source.

To obtain reimbursement under Ordinary Losses, you must provide the details below and attach supporting documentation.

Itemization of Loss	Date of Loss	Type of Supporting Documentation	Amount

Provide a narrative description of your unreimbursed Ordinary Loss(es) below, including the date the expense was incurred and its relation to the Data Security Incident (You may attach additional pages if necessary):

ATTACH DOCUMENTS: Supporting documentation must be provided. Attach a copy of credit card statements, bank statements, invoices, telephone records, and receipts for each expense (you may redact unrelated transactions).

Attested Time Spent: Settlement Class Members may submit a claim for time spent remedying identity theft, fraud, misuse of personal information, credit monitoring or freezing credit reports and/or other issues reasonably traceable to the Data Security Incident (“Attested Time”). If you submit a valid claim for Ordinary Losses and also spent time dealing with issues related to the Data Security Incident, you may receive reimbursement of $25 per hour up to four (4) hours for a valid claim for Attested Time (for a total of up to $100). Claims made for Attested Time must be combined with reimbursement for Ordinary Losses, subject to the $500 aggregate cap.

If you spent time remedying issues related to the Data Security Incident, including at least one (1) full hour, please list the amount of time that you spent here: _____.

To obtain reimbursement for this Attested Time, you must provide the details and attestation below.

Provide a narrative description of your Attested Time and its relation to the Data Security Incident (You may attach additional pages if necessary):

By checking the below box, I hereby declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided in this Claim Form to support my seeking relief for Attested Time is true and correct.

Yes, I understand that I am submitting this Claim Form and the affirmations it makes as to my seeking relief for Attested Time under penalty of perjury. I further understand that my failure to check this box may render my Claim for Attested Time null and void.

2. Extraordinary Losses: You can receive reimbursement for Extraordinary Losses up to $3,500 total that were incurred as a result of the Data Security Incident if: (i) the loss is an actual, documented, and unreimbursed monetary loss; (ii) the claimant provides proof to the Claims Administrator that that loss was proximately caused by the Data Security Incident; (iii) the claimant made reasonable efforts to avoid the loss or seek reimbursement for the loss, including, but not limited to, exhaustion of all available credit monitoring or identity monitoring insurance; and; (iv) the loss occurred between November 17, 2024 and October 8, 2025.

To obtain reimbursement under Extraordinary Losses, you must provide the details below and attach supporting documentation.

Itemization of Loss	Date of Loss	Type of Supporting Documentation	Amount

Provide a narrative description of your unreimbursed Extraordinary Loss(es) below, including the date the expense was incurred and its relation to the Data Security Incident (You may attach additional pages if necessary):

ATTACH DOCUMENTS: Supporting documentation must be provided. Attach a copy of professional fees incurred to address identity theft or fraud, such as falsified tax returns, account fraud, and/or identity theft for each expense (you may redact unrelated transactions).
